About Us

We provide legal services and business advisory services in Slovakia, the Czech Republic and the region of Central Europe. We work in a modern, dynamic and pragmatic way in order to effectively provide our clients with acquired experience and knowledge.

We place great emphasis on a pleasant environment, loyalty and seriousness, and we try to build with our clients relationship based on confidence and trust, so the client can contact us anytime and anywhere.

Providing legal services is not just a normal job. It is a life mission and commitment, what requires predetermined characteristics and abilities as well as connecting the law to your personal and business life.

Our Approach

Our work and business activities are founded on principles, which clearly define our position and approach towards our clients, business environment and colleagues. We are building relationships based on trust, honesty and loyalty and dedication to every matter which is entrusted to us.

Conscientious work, clear agreements and individual approach to everyone. We are devoted to our principles and we honour them.

WHY WE ARE SUCCESSFUL? BECAUSE ...

Law is our passion and lifestyle,
every day, every hour, every minute
we take care of you and your business.

We know the world, business and modern technology as well as old good and proven solutions.

What We Do

Providing legal services at the highest level means linking the law to a personal and business life. Thanks to this fact we are still closer to the thinking of our clients and their problems in life and business.

We do our job based on the latest expertise, as well as on global and local trends that can ensure the timeliness and consistency of our solutions. Our added value is our experience and knowledge.
